

Maths

How can we measure our impact on the environment?

Measurement: length, perimeter and area

Fractions

Geography

How does human activity affect mountainous landscapes? How can we take responsibility?

What a mountain is and how they are formed

Mountain ranges of the world

Human activity and its effect on the environment

Sources of evidence of environmental issues

Through factual evidence consider changes we can make to mitigate the human impact on the environment

RSE

What am I responsible for? How can I demonstrate my responsibility through the choices I make?

Am I always responsible? – A parable about personal responsibility

Who owns the sky? – A study of whether we truly own natural resources and our responsibilities towards them

Class 3 Spring Term 2

How are we looking after the world for future generations?

Responsibility

Reading

How did events impact the decisions made by the characters?

King of the Cloud Forests by Michael Morpurgo

D.T.

How can we use our products to help to look after the environment?

Producing items for a Fairtrade Cafe

Computing

How can we take responsibility for using the internet safely?

Internet safety and research

Music

How can the environment inspire our compositions?

Produce a soundscape of a mountainous landscape using percussion

English

How does culture influence the choices authors make?

Poetry (Tankas)

Stories from other cultures (Nepal)

Non-chronological reports

Science

How can our actions affect change to ensure the survival of animals and their habitats?

Changes to the environment and the dangers this poses

Classifying animals in a mountainous ecosystem

Food chains and webs

R.E.

What can Buddhism teach us about being responsible?

Siddhartha Gautama

Vesak

Symbols and stories

P.E.

Fitness

Outdoor And Adventure Unit