

Class 3 Autumn 1: Belonging Home Is Where The Heart Is

Reading

How can an author use their voice to share memories?

- ❖ Home Sweet Home ~ Film from the 'Literacy Shed
- ❖ Memorial by Shaun Tan

Writing

What is an author? How can writing capture the memories of change held by a place?

- ❖ Prose - Child of Books by Oliver Jeffers
- ❖ Diary writing - Matchbox Diary by Paul Fleischman

Maths

Being a Mathematician

- ❖ Place Value
- ❖ Addition & Subtraction
- ❖ Times Tables

Science

Being a Scientist - Keep asking the questions
Plants - Their Parts and Functions

- ❖ Roots, stems, leaves and flowers
- ❖ Growth and Nutrition
- ❖ Water
- ❖ Pollination
- ❖ Seeds

RE

What is it like for someone to follow God?

- ❖ Consider how the bible is a 'sacred' text and its layout.
- ❖ Consider how the stories Noah and Abraham may enhance the idea of faith.

PE

Being an Athlete

- ❖ Swimming (Wed pm)
- ❖ Invasion Games ~ Netball with Mr Mitchell (Thur pm)

Geography

What is a Geographer?
How can we use different mapping techniques to record and read permanence and change?

- ❖ Focus on settlements and mapping of local area.

Music

Being a Musician

- ❖ Percussion: Djembe Drums Taught by Mrs Tidball (Cornwall Music Service) Tue pm

PSHE

Being Me In My World

- ❖ Being part of the class / a school citizen
- ❖ Rights, responsibilities and democracy
- ❖ Pupil leadership
- ❖ Rewards and consequences
- ❖ How our actions effect ourselves and others
- ❖ Writing and owning our Learning Charter
- ❖ Breathing techniques to calm our bodies and minds

French

Being a Linguist

- ❖ My family & me
- ❖ Key French phonemes
- ❖ Talking about me